ABOUT

OUR FOUNDER'S STORY

"Do the things today that will better the lives of others tomorrow."

In 2024, Charles Hemans founded Proactive Perimeter Control with a clear vision: to revolutionize modern security through innovative, all-in-one solutions. Collaborating with trusted vendors who bring extensive experience in security technology. Charles recognized the need for a unified approach to protect residential, commercial, government, and sensitive institutions effectively.

Under his leadership, the company has seamlessly integrated cutting-edge technology with proven expertise from its partners, offering tailored protection for everything from private homes to critical government facilities. Charles's mission is simple yet profound—to deliver holistic, proactive security that ensures peace of mind for every client.
